

Student disciplinary procedures for member(s), Committees, Societies and Sports Clubs forming part of the Code of Conduct of the Students' Union

1. Interpretation
 - 1.1 These procedures should be read in conjunction with the Constitution, Bye Laws, Code of Conduct, Code of Practice and the relevant Standing Orders of University of Lincoln Students' Union and shall be interpreted accordingly.
2. Procedure
 - 2.1 Upon receipt of a written complaint from any person against a member(s), Committees, Societies and Sports Clubs, the ULSU Official Complaint Procedure will be used in the first instance.
 - 2.2 Under ULSU Complaints Procedure paragraph 3a, the Chief Executive Officer can refer any complaint that they believe should result in disciplinary action to this procedure.
3. The complaint should refer to an incident which has happened
 - 3.1 on campus or,
 - 3.2 at an ULSU official function or an activity off campus where a Club, Society or Committee can clearly be identified as being part of ULSU as a member, a member of a ULSU Society, Club or Standing committee.

Otherwise, incidents occurring off campus will not be the responsibility of the Disciplinary Panel.

4. Complaints against Members of the Executive Committee

4.1 Any complaint against a member of the Executive Committee shall be made in writing and should be submitted in line with the ULSU Complaints Procedure. Complaints will be dealt with under the Sabbatical Trustee Terms and Conditions and Code of Conduct.

5. Informal resolution

5.1 The Chief Executive Officer can refer a complaint, which in the view of the Chief Executive Officer (or their deputy) does not initially warrant a formal panel process, to a Sabbatical Trustee whose portfolio remit covers the area referred to in the complaint. In the event that this is not obvious, or the Sabbatical Trustee is conflicted, then the Chief Executive Officer, or their deputy, can appoint an alternative Sabbatical Trustee to try to informally resolve the complaint. If the Chief Executive Officer (or their deputy) does not believe that the complaint can be resolved by informal means, then the Chief Executive Officer (or their deputy) can refer the complaint directly to the President for formal procedures to be undertaken as per paragraph 7.1.

6. Informal resolution procedure

6.1 The Informal Sabbatical Trustee appointed under paragraph 5.1 (hereby referred to as IST) arranges to meet or discuss on the telephone with the complainant the situation that gave rise to the complaint to understand the outcome that the complainant wishes to see and to see the main causes of grievance.

6.2 The IST arranges to meet with, or hold a telephone conversation, with the accused in order to discuss the complaint and the reasons for the complaint.

6.3 If no contact can be made, or there is no response by the accused, within 5 working days of the initial communication being sent or made, then the IST can reach a conclusion to the informal investigation without any contact with the accused.

6.4 If in the opinion of the IST the complaint is not upheld then the IST will write to the complainant, within 5 clear days, outlining the reasons why the complaint has not been upheld after an informal investigation.

- 6.5 The correspondence from the IST to the complainant will also outline that the complainant has the right to appeal within 5 clear days of the outcome letter received. This appeal should be submitted to the Students' Union's Chief Executive requesting that the Formal Disciplinary Procedure be instigated.
- 6.6 In the event of an appeal under 6.5, the IST will write a report outlining their findings and reason for not upholding the complaint. The Chief Executive can therefore review the information supplied by the IST and decide whether the formal process should commence. In the event that the Chief Executive does not uphold the appeal, the complainant will be informed within 5 clear days by letter of the outcome and of their right to appeal to the University under paragraph 11 of this policy on procedural grounds.
- 6.7 If the complaint is upheld by the IST then the Sabbatical Trustee can take any of the following actions:
- 6.7.1 Issue a letter of warning which will normally include the sanctions if a similar incident occurs again.
 - 6.7.2 Suspend the rights and privileges of a member including the right to hold any position of responsibility, excluding the right to vote, for a period not exceeding 4 weeks of teaching time. This entails a prohibition on entering the ULSU buildings and on using all ULSU services and partaking in Union activities (including Society/Sports Clubs events).
 - 6.7.3 Instruct that the member pays for the cost of any damage which they have caused to ULSU property.
 - 6.7.4 Instruct that a club or society pays a fine not exceeding £20.
 - 6.7.5 Refer the matter to a formal disciplinary panel for the case to be heard in full.
- 6.8 A letter detailing the outcome of the Informal Resolution Process detailing and sanctions imposed by the IST is to be sent within 15 working days of the initial complaint being made.

- 6.9 The accused has the right to appeal the decision of the IST by writing to the Chief Executive within 5 working days to request that the case is heard by the Disciplinary Panel as detailing in Paragraph 7.

7. Disciplinary Panel – Formal Disciplinary process

- 7.1 The President, or their nominated Deputy, has a responsibility upon receipt of a referral by either the Chief Executive Officer as detailed in paragraph 3 of the Complaints procedure, or IST as detailed in paragraph 6.7.5 or an appeal from the accused following an Informal Resolution Process (as detailed in 6.9) outcome from the IST to form a Disciplinary Panel consisting of:

 - 7.2.4 At the beginning of any panel any conflicts of interest are discussed with agreement reached by the panel on whether the conflict would prevent a fair decision being reached, or cause the panel to appear biased. Given the small size of available potential panel members, conflicts of interest should be absolute before removal of a panel member is considered. This decision is noted in the minutes of the panel.
- 7.3 The Disciplinary Panel will decide whether the issue should be dealt with by the panel directly, or alternatively referred to:
 - 7.3.1 The police, if the matter may constitute a criminal offence.

 - 7.4.2 The person against whom the complaint is made is hereinafter referred to as the accused.
 - 7.4.3 Within the text 'complainant' and 'accused' are used in the singular form; where applicable these are to be read as being in the plural.
 - 7.4.4 Teaching time is the recognised undergraduate semester timetable as published by the University of Lincoln. In the event of this not being clear, the decision on what time period is defined as "teaching time" is the non-voting member of the panel. Their decision is final on this matter.

- 7.5 In dealing with the complaint, the Disciplinary Panel may:
- 7.5.1 Issue a letter of warning which will normally include the sanction if a similar incident occurs again.
 - 7.5.2 Suspend the rights and privileges of a member including the right to hold any position of responsibility, excluding the right to vote, for a period not exceeding six months of teaching time. This entails a prohibition on entering the ULSU buildings and on using all ULSU services and partaking in Union activities (including Society/Sports Clubs events).
 - 7.5.3 Instruct that the member pays for the cost of any damage which they have occasioned to ULSU property.
 - 7.5.4 Instruct that where a member gains or attempts to gain entry to an ULSU function without making the due payment, that he or she is fined an equivalent amount.
 - 7.5.5. Instruct that a club or society pays a fine not exceeding £100.00.

In this case, the letter will state that the accused can appeal to the University, as per paragraph 11.
